

The Modernian

1961

PRESENTING The MODERIAN for 1961

Canton South High School Canton, Ohio

DEDICATION

This year's Moderian Staff wishes to dedicate the 1961 issue to Mr. Aquilino Perez. Serving South loyally for eight years, he has enriched the school with his vast store of knowledge in the fields of Spanish and Mathematics. His friendliness in and out of the classroom has brought him the respect, admiration, and gratitude of the students.

While a temporary resident of Spain, he took refresher courses at the University of Madrid; he received his Bachelor's Degree at the University of Akron and his Master's Degree in Education at Kent State University.

As a token of our appreciation for his efforts and interests, we would like to bestow upon Mr. Perez the highest honor in our power—the dedication of the 1961 Moderian.

His nearly boundless energy and enthusiasm make each class period a lively one.

From his desk at the rear of the room Mr. Perez observes many of his student-directed classes.

FOREWORD . . .

"Shadows" has been selected by the 1961 Moderian Staff as the theme for our yearbook.

This year we are introducing a supplement to include all spring activities through Commencement, scenes which previously were not available until the succeeding year.

It is our sincere hope that you enjoy and are proud of the cover in color, as well as the entire Annual.

We have endeavored to give you the best possible yearbook within our means and we hope and believe you will get many moments of pleasure from—The 1961 Moderian.

The image features a minimalist, abstract design. A large, light gray triangle occupies the lower-left portion of the frame. A thin, dark diagonal line extends from the top right towards the center, intersecting the triangle. On the right side, a dark silhouette of a person's head and shoulders is visible, facing left. The background is a light, neutral tone.

SOUTH WINS PREVIEW 8-0

Taking over on their own 42, the Wildcats marched 58 yards, with Ed Peterson hitting from the three. Jerry Jolliff passed to Peterson for the PAT.

JACKSON BEATS WILDCATS

Jackson rolled over South 20-8 in the opening game. South simply couldn't contend with the big, tough Polar Bears. South's only score came in the final period on a pass from Jerry Jolliff to Ed Peterson. Ken Aman scored the PAT on a pass.

SOUTH TRIUMPHS OVER PERRY

South scored twice on a pair of 55-yard passes from Jerry Jolliff to Jerry Miller. Frank Dugan ran 43 yards and Jolliff 22 for the other two scores. This was our first win in the AA loop.

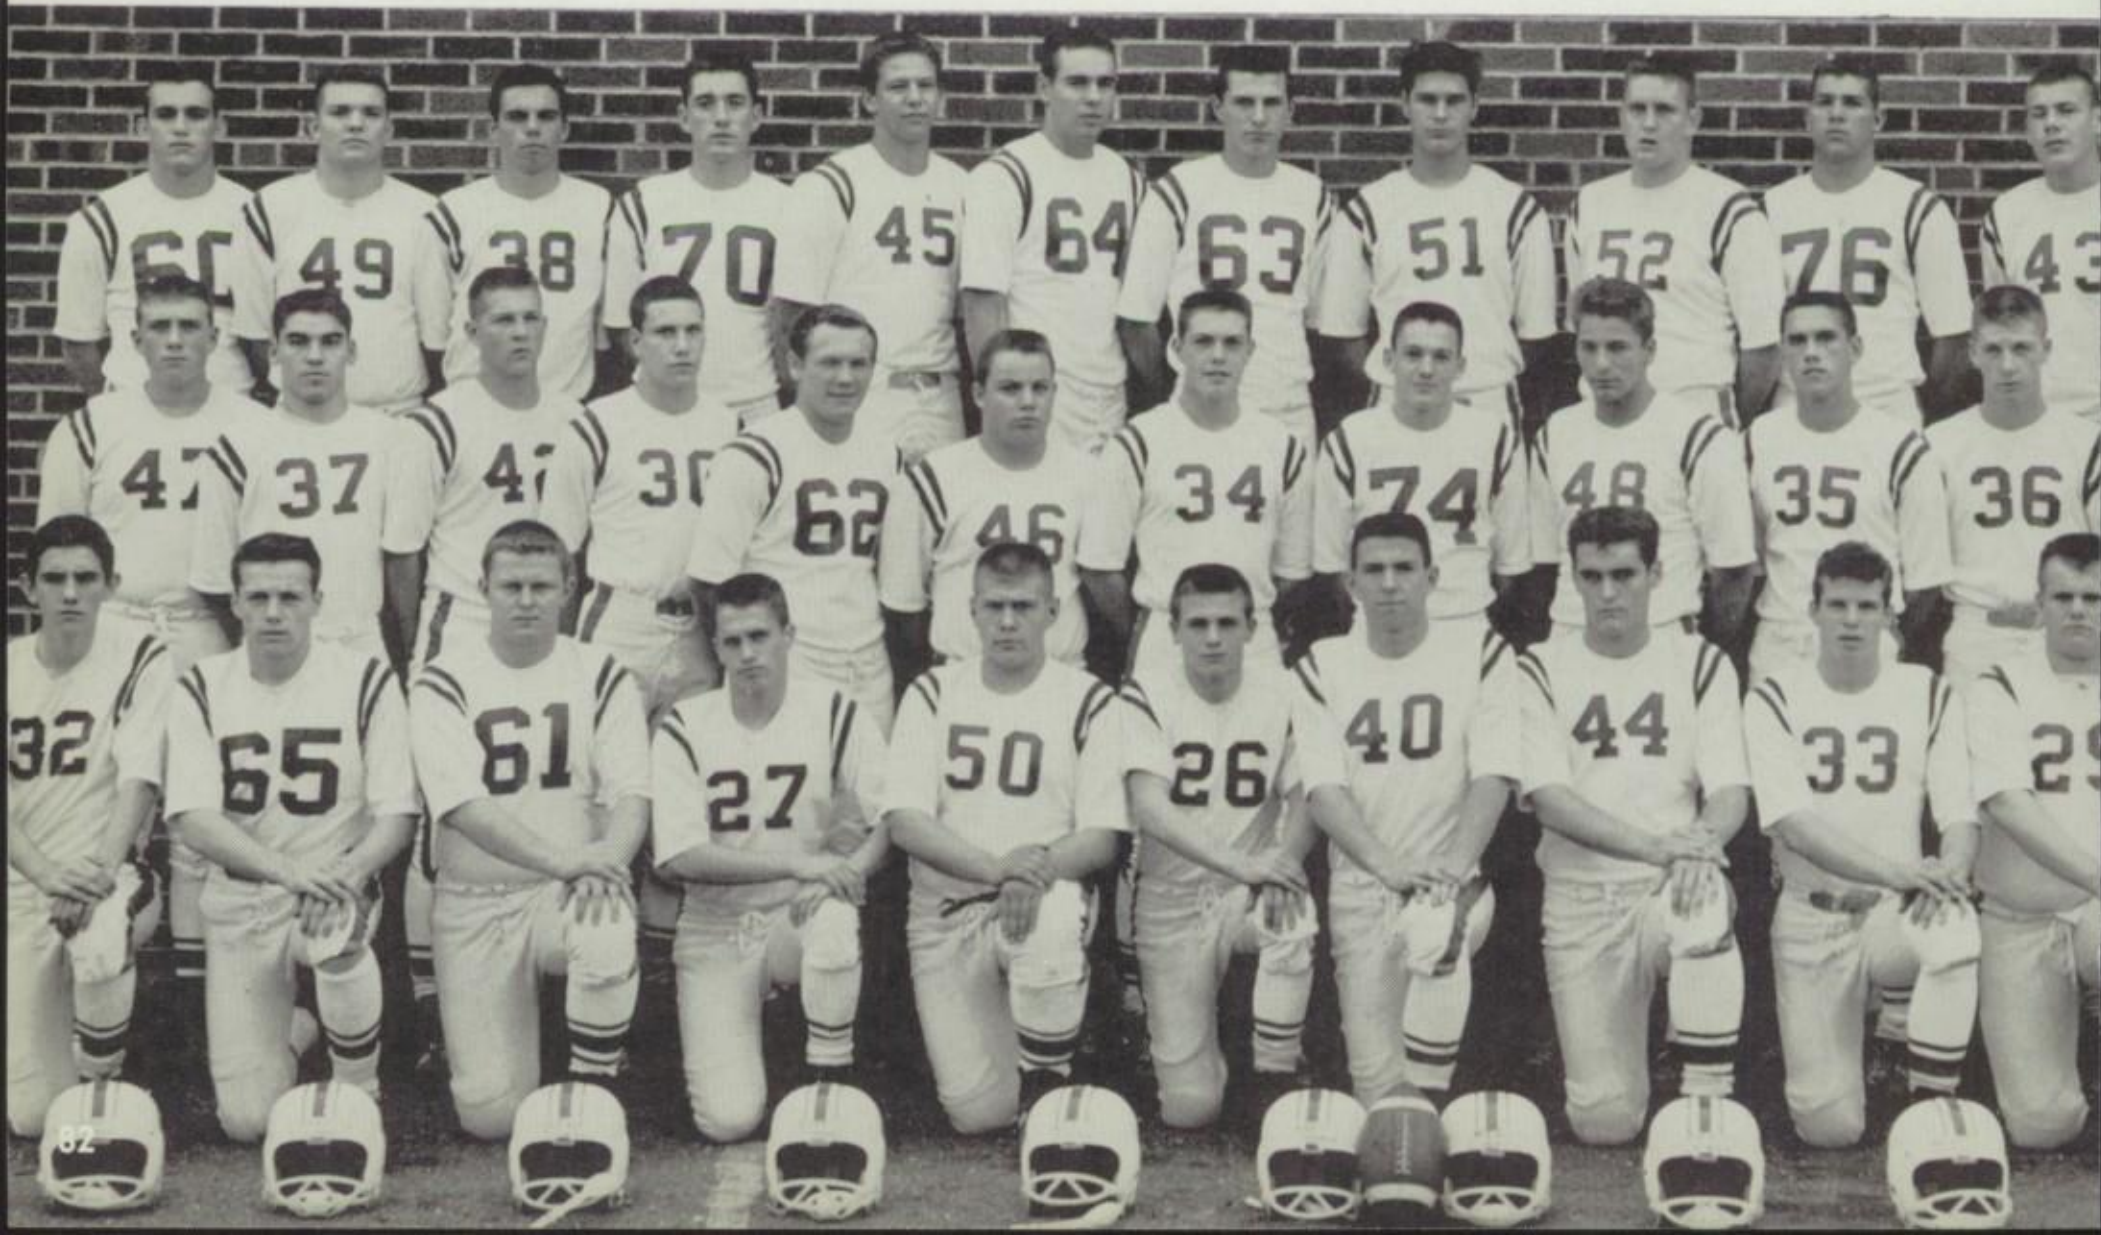

SOUTH BLASTS GLENWOOD

South rolled over the heavily favored Eagles 28-0. Halfback Ed Peterson scored twice and halfback Frank Dugan scored twice more. Dugan also added to his points by scoring two PAT's.

ROW 1 (Left to right): Lester Sickafoose, Ken Aman, Jerry Thomas, John Hexamer, Steve Brissey, Gary Teeple, Jim Davis, Russ Meek, Richard Wilks, Paul Yoe, Jerry

FOOTBALL

ORVILLE WHIPS SOUTH

Before the Homecoming crowd of 2,500, the Wildcats held the rampaging Raiders to two touchdowns. This was a great moral victory for the Wildcats.

SANDY VALLEY EDGES SOUTH

South took a heartbreaking defeat at the hands of Sandy Valley 22-20. Ed Peterson scored from the one-yard line and Frank Dugan converted. Dick Himes scored twice on passes of 11 and 7 yards. The margin of difference was the failure of both extra point tries.

Scott Quinn, Dick Himes, Jerry Miller, Jerry Jolliff, Dave Johnson, Dave Cunningham, Dick Fliger, Ted Neining, Larry Cox, Jim Allen, Bill Hall.

LEHMAN DEFEATS SOUTH

Lehman's quarterback proved the difference against South as he passed Lehman to a 21-6 victory. South's only score came on a 4-yard pass from Jerry Jolliff.

SOUTH BLASTS LOUISVILLE

The Wildcats rolled to an upset victory over the Leopards 50-14. Ed Peterson took scoring honors by scoring 4 touchdowns and adding four conversions. Frank Dugan, Jerry Miller, and Jerry Fortune also scored.

SOUTH AND TIMKEN TIE

South and Timken battled fiercely to an 11-14 tie, with South rallying in the second half after Timken had dominated the first half. Dick Himes scored on a 6-yard pass and Ed Peterson converted. Jerry Jolliff ran a 4-yard keeper play for the final score. He also tried to get the winning points, but was stopped short.

SOUTH DEFEATS MAPLE HEIGHTS

South posted its best season since 1951 by defeating Maple Heights 28-6. Jerry Jolliff led the scoring with two touchdowns, with Ed Peterson and Jerry Miller adding one each. This was the finish of a very hard fought season.

We find the band in the midst of their traditional Louisville-Canton South Band rehearsal with their usual "orderliness."

Here are the majorettes with their wooden shoes and tulips making an imaginary visit to Holland at a Band Half-Time Show.

Our versatile majorettes combine with the band to entertain the football audience with one of their many dance routines.

FIFTH ROW: Keith Horton, Terry Stark, Wesley Jones, Mr. Heist.

VARIETY SHOW

The traditional Variety Show was, as always, an enthusiastic success. The Dance Orchestra, composed of many fine musicians, set the background for a variety of acts, just a few of which are shown below.

Charlotte Hampton, Judy Haver, Nancy Gaines, Deane Booth and Jack Bair were featured soloists.

The Drill Team was a very colorful sight in their gay gypsy costumes. This dance team performed two well-accepted numbers.

A novelty solo dance performer was Susan Eberhart, assisted by Andrea Semple, Sandra Abel, Joan Mizanoski, and Georgia Kautz.

Jack Bair, Jerry Weaver, Brad Baad, and Carol Homman were featured instrumental soloists.

Judy Haver, Carl Dazey, Deane Booth, Ed Michaels, and Diana Mock were featured in a trombone novelty number.

Our talented majorettes pose for us in a typical Scotch dance.

STANDING: Mary Jane Young, for her first year, and Senior announcer Linda Goodwill, for her last year, both did fine work as announcers.

Jack Bair, vocal soloist, accompanied by Brad Baad, John Ward, Deane Booth, and Keith Horton, were quite an added attraction in a novelty Spike Jones number.

The cheerleaders are shown in their chic cheering outfits and pom-poms, ready to lead the team on to victory.

Donna Young, Karel Choffin, and Sharon Hostetler were seen in unique dance specialties.

LAHOMA!

November, 1960, brought us a delightful musical production presented by our Choral Department. Below are a few of the many colorful scenes which were enjoyed by the enthusiastic audiences.

Below: "Girls, could you—could you go some'eres else and tell fortunes? I gotta be here by myself."

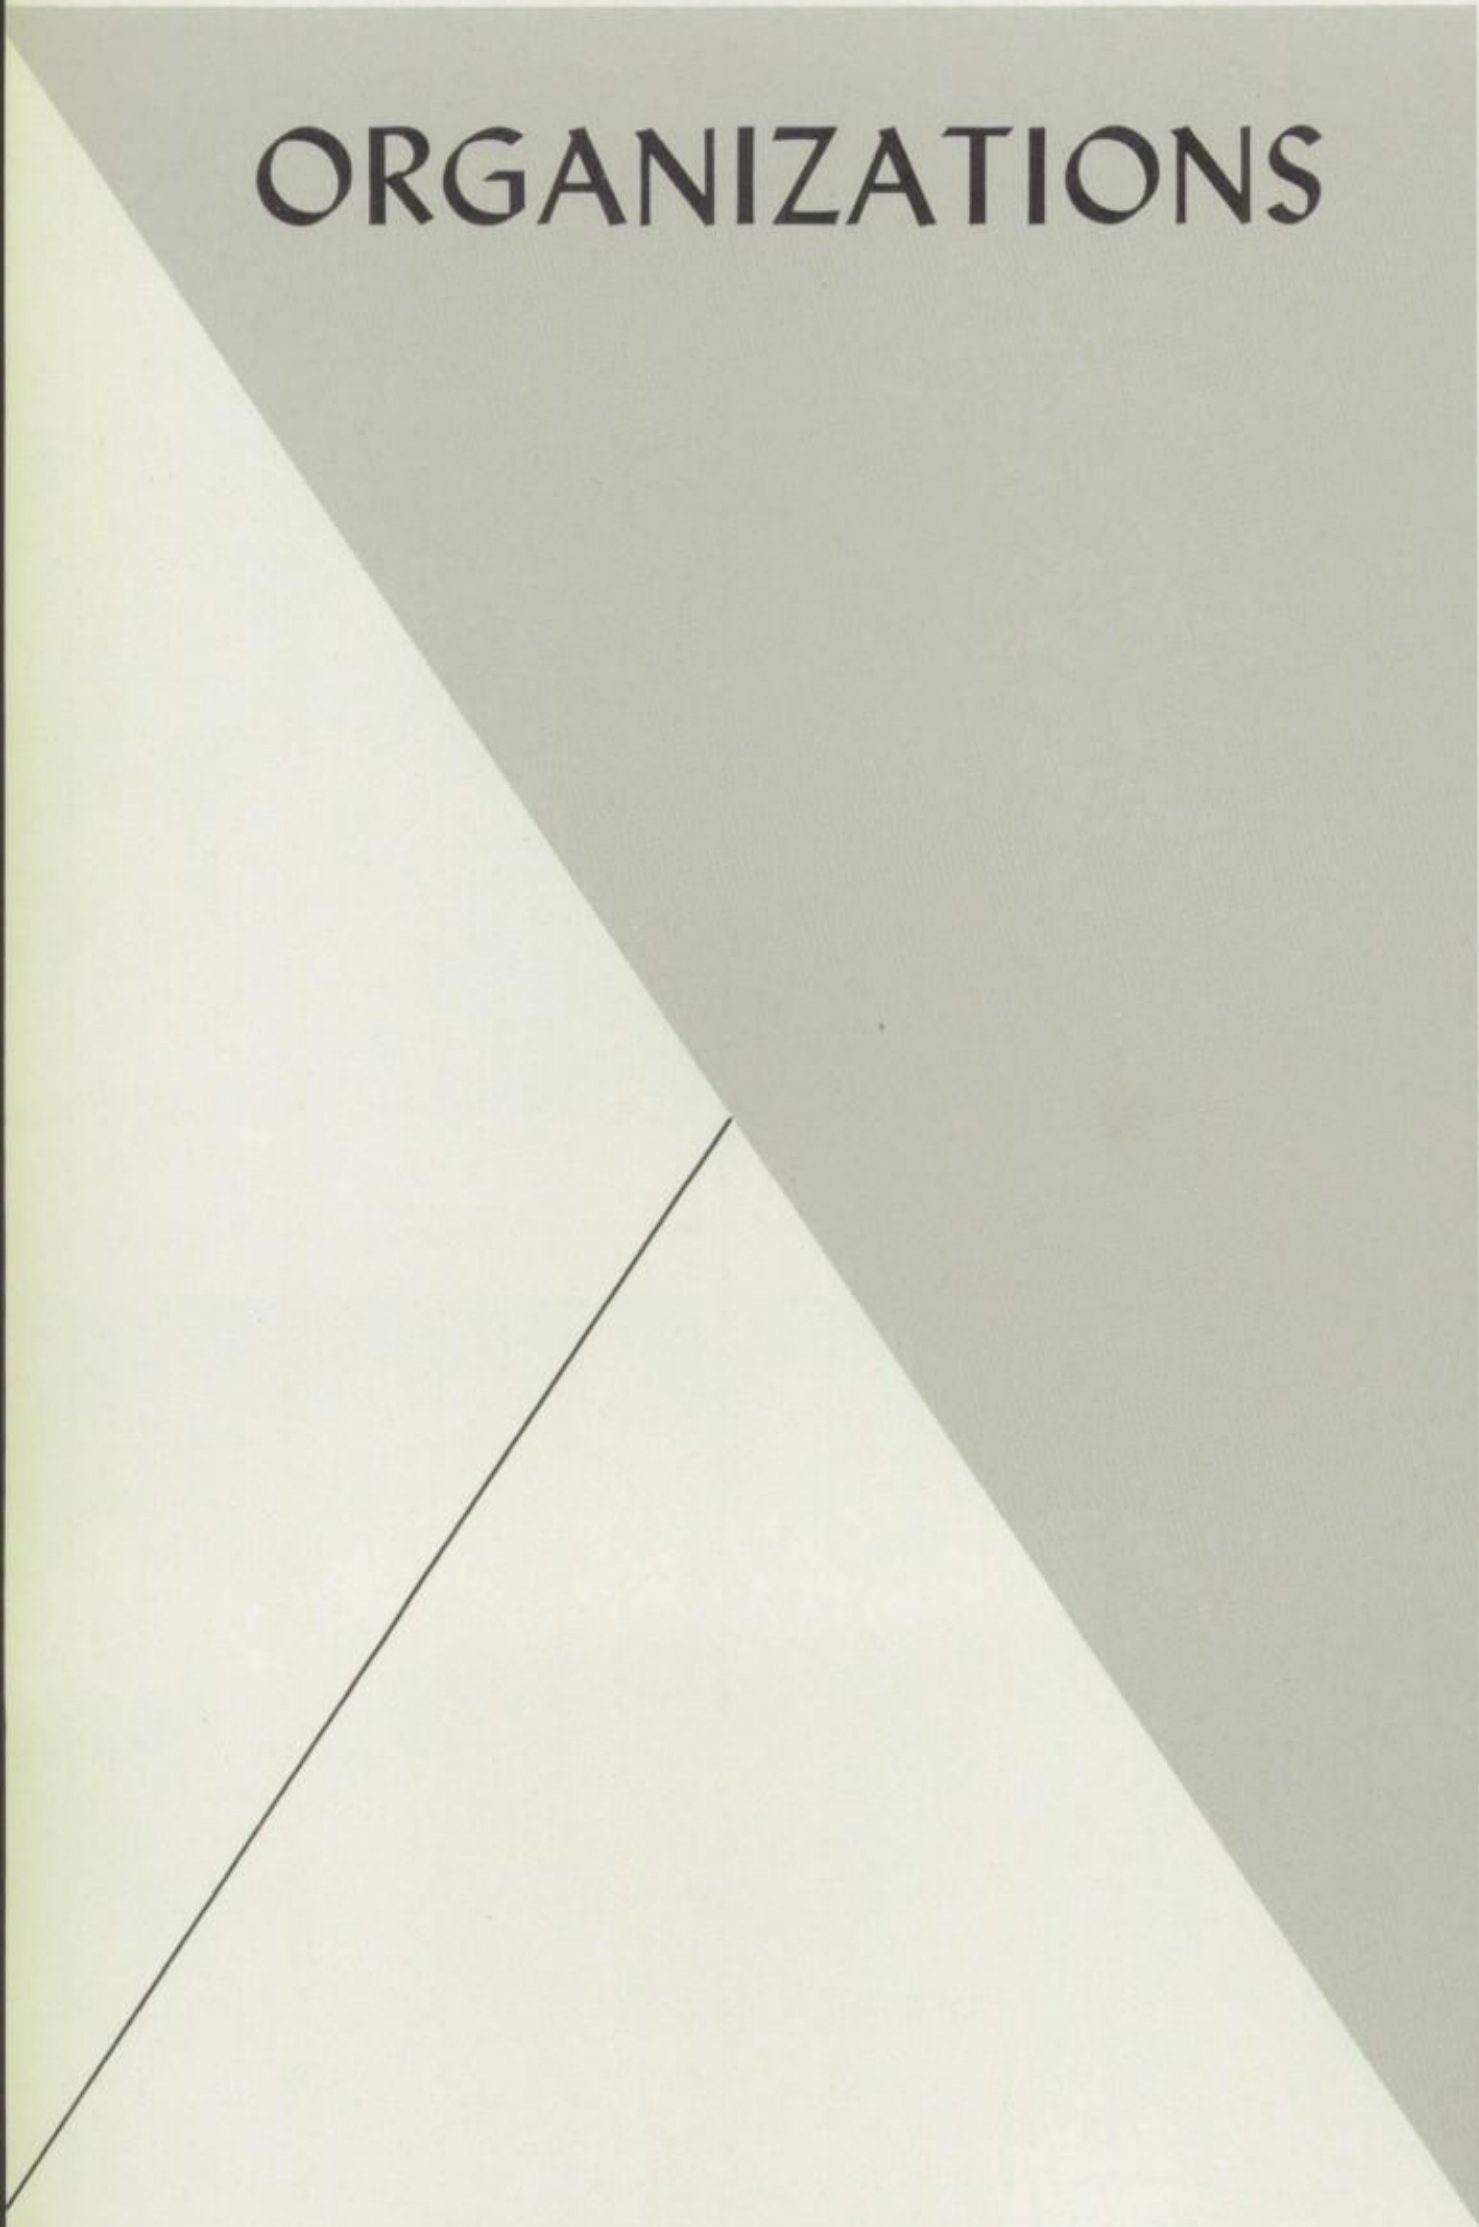

To left: "The Surrey with the Fringe on Top," with Charlotte Hampton and Jack Bair.

The cast closes with the theme song "Oklahoma."

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM — 1960

At the Moonlight Ballroom we danced to the music of Jack Helkides and his Orchestra in a theme setting of Moonlight Serenade. Afterwards we attended a movie, "The Mating Game," at the Dueber Theater.

Queen of the 1960 Prom—SHARON HOSTETLER.

Barb Wilson and her escort gaze dreamily into the fountain.

Between dances we had a chance to pause and refresh.

The 1960 Homecoming Queen and her court reigned at the annual Homecoming Dance. They are, from left to right: Senior Attendant Jean Beck and escort Rod Toth, Junior Attendant Charlotte Hampton and escort Joe Talafous, Queen Sheila Pollock and escort Dick Tharpe, Sophomore Attendant Marlene Giaquinta and escort Rick Nunley, and Freshman Attendant Helen Cornett and escort Bill Sheets.

HOMEcoming

The theme for the Homecoming dance was "jerseys," and although we lost to Orrville a good time was enjoyed by everyone.

These people sit and enjoy the music while others dance.

The 1960 Homecoming Queen Sheila Pollock and escort Dick Tharpe.

Mixed reactions are evident in this picture as no one seems to know exactly what's taking place.

Brad Baad tries for a hasty exit in order to escape from the forceful Karel Choffin, as Karen Walter sits by tearfully.

JUNIOR PLAY CLASS OF '61

The Absent Minded Professor evolves around a summer estate and a stolen statue. Brad Baad, as the professor seems to have quite a bit of trouble remembering things. When Karel Choffin tries to shower her acting talents on him by posing as the stolen statue, things really jumped.

RECLINING: Brad Baad. SITTING: Marilyn Frankovich, Karel Choffin, Karen Walter, and Mary Laponja. STANDING: Barb Sigmund, Jim Davis, Jim Allen, Frank Shaheen, Dick Tharpe, Don Fisher, and Janice Fowler.

Jim Allen and Frank Shaheen seem to have a captivated audience in the person of Brad Baad.

Anybody for a nap? Brad Baad seems quite unconcerned with the happenings here, although various emotions are expressed.

SENIOR PLAY

CLASS OF '61

"Death Takes A Holiday" is based on the conception of death, portrayed by Stan Brechbuhler, suspending all activities for three days during which period he falls in love with a beautiful girl, and through her realizes why mortals fear him.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"Goodbye, My Fancy" is based on the activities of commencement weekend at Good Hope College in Massachusetts. Agatha Reed a prominent Congresswoman, has come back to receive her honorary degree. Miss Reed finds that Professor Merrill, with whom she thought she was in love, has turned into a spineless figure. This drives her into the arms of Matt Cole, a visiting LIFE photographer.

Deane Booth, as Matt Cole, seems to be getting some interesting snapshots.

Donna Young, as Agatha Reed, and Sharon Miller, as Ginnie Merrill, receive quite a shock when they learn from Brenda Franklin, as Ellen Griswald, that Joe Calabretta, President Merrill, has resigned as President of Good Hope College.

1961 PROM

"Stairway to the Stars" was chosen as the theme for the Prom. The naming of the Court and crowning of the King and Queen high-lighted the evening at 9:30. After the dance, the facilities of the Y.M.C.A were made available.

Charlie Pickins' Orchestra supplied the music for dancing in the Moonlight Ballroom of Meyers Lake Park.

This page sponsored by REYNOLDS & McILVAIN DANCE STUDIO.

The King and Queen of the 1961 Prom led off the first dance after their coronation.

SENIOR CLASS DAY

On May 29, 1961, Senior Day began with the presenting of awards in the morning assembly. The traditional readings of the Last Will and Class Prophecy were followed by a take-off on a faculty meeting. The class picnic concluded the day's activities.

Awards were initiated this year to the outstanding student in each department of instruction. Mr. Cain presented the Science Department Trophy to Charles Fagert.
